Architect Busy with Plans That Old Firm of Sugar Brokers Compelled to Give Up

Dividends.

Ex-Judge Horace Russell, the confidential counsel of ex-Judge Hilton, said yesterday that he had received many offers—some for the entire stock, others for departments—and that all would be considered as soon as the inventory is taken. Some of the offers for the entire stock came from firms that would continue business at the old stand, but Mr. Russell would not discuss the nature of the propositions further than to say that they were legitimate.

A circular just issued by Secretary Charles J. Rosenbault, of the Retail Dry Goods Association, adds to the above information a statement by Mr. Russell to the effect that as the debts of the firm will be paid by ex-Judge Hilton he will be in a position to dispose of the stock as he may prefer; that preference will be given to the bid of any respectable firm that will undertake to continue the business at the old stand, and that the entire stock may be disposed of at auction in department lors.

Judge Russell said yesterday that he was not misrepresented in Mr. Rosenbault's statement, but that he had not given the information for publication.

By order of the Board of Directors.
